Standing Rules of the Mississippi Conference

Standing Committees.

The Presiding Elders are instructed to meet in advance of the first morning session of the Conference, and to have the Standing Committees ready for nomination at the opening of the Conference.—Journal 1882, page 10.

Censure for Not Appearing for Examination.

It is cause for censure for any preacher to fail, without good reason, to appear before the committee for examination.—Journal 1891, page 37.

Pastors and Collections.

Pastors are instructed to prorate all collections taken on assessments, so as not to discriminate against one claim in favor of another.—Journal 1898, page 18.

Mississippi Orphans' Home.

Each pastor is required to devote one Sunday in each year to the interests of the Orphans' Home, and promptly forward amounts contributed to the Treasurer of the Home.—Journal 1902, page 40.

Reports and Resolutions.

Reports and resolutions should be written with ink and presented in duplicate.—Journal 1903, page 14.

Lay Membership in the District Conference.

The Lay Membership in the District Conference shall consist of one delegate from each church for every one hundred members and fraction of two-thirds thereof; provided, that each church shall have at least one delegate. These delegates shall be elected by the Church Conference.—Journal 1910, page 78.

Pastors' Reports.

The pastors shall present the reports of their charges to the Auditing Committee not later than the second day's session.

The pastors shall report only even dollars in the statistical tables.—Journal 1913, page 51.

Correspondence School and Examining Committees.

Examining Committees are authorized to accept certificates from the Correspondence School and the Seashore Divinity School in lieu of examinations by themselves.—Journal 1914, page 57.

Conference Sacramental Service.

At future sessions of the Conference it shall be the standing order to hold the Conference Sacramental Service in connection with and immediately following the devotional service at the opening session of each Conference.—Journal 1914, page 35.

Publication Report of Divinity School.

The annual report of the Seashore Divinity School shall be read on the Conference floor and published in the Journal.—Journal 1916, page 31.

Resolutions on Evangelism.

The following Resolutions introduced by the Presiding Elders were adopted by a rising vote:

We the Undersigned Presiding Elders of your Conference, respectfully offer the following resolutions:

RESOLVED FIRST: That we hail with delight and great appreciation the address of our Bishops on Evangelism, as expressive of and appealing to the real spirit of Methodism, and as in harmony with the tradition of our forefathers, and of the apostolic doctrine and practice. And we most heartily commit ourselves unreservedly to the same.

Resolved Second: That we recognize in our Bishops, our ordained and divinely taught overseers, and that we rejoice in their leadership as provided for in the economy of our church.

Resolved Third: That we recognize that to the pastors of the church is committed the supreme responsibility for the spiritual oversight and direction of their respective charges, and that we would protect them against all aggression from outside agencies that would in any way interfere with their individual initiative under the guidance of the Spirit.

Resolved Fourth: That we emphatically decline to commit ourselves to plans which fail to emphasize the fundamental doctrines which alone inspire Christian faith and experience, especially when accompanied by unsound official publications asserting that in the coming revival "the ancient creeds and dogmas will not be brought out of the limbo of neglected things," and "that there will be few tears and no shouting at all in the approaching pentecost."

Resolved Fifth: That we cannot endorse from any source such plans or programs as are out of harmony with historic Methodism and Evangelical Christianity, and seeks chiefly an increase of membership by methods not productive of vital godliness or spiritual life.

Resolved Sixth: That we recommend that each presiding Elder call together early in the year the pastors of his District for a season of self-examination, and prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, that souls may be converted and added to the church, and that to the same end each pastor be urged to call the godly people of his charge to meet as a whole, or in convenient groups, for scriptural study and prayer.

Resolved Seventh: That revival services be held in every church within our Conference at the earliest convenient season of the Conference year conducted by the pastor, with or without the help of other pastors or of Conference Evangelists, that in all such services the godly laymen be used to the utmost under the direction of the pastor and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Also that in our regular preaching services, our prayer meetings, Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools throughout the year, the evangelistic note be sounded and opportunity be given for persons to come to God through Christ.

Resolved Eighth: That these resolutions be adopted by a rising vote of the Conference and the principles expressed therein, and be put into action not only during the year before us, but throughout the years to come.

Smith, having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, were elected to Deacons' Orders and advanced to the Class of the Third Year.

J. A. Smith, already in deacons' orders, having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, was advanced to the Class of the Third Year.

M. A. Massey, not having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, was continued in the Class of the Second Year.

David Russell Campbell, duly recommended by the Hattiesburg District Conference; Warren Nathaniel Ware and Chester Overton Boyles, duly recommended by the Newton District Conference, were elected to Local Deacons' Orders.

Question Fifteen—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been elected elders?" was called, and A. J. Beasley, J. B. Cain, H. C. Castles, S. F. Harkey, J. H. Jolly, C. P. Jones, A. A. Sims, D. W. Ulmer, H. A. Wood and O. C. Seevers, having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, were elected to Elders' Orders.

R. A. Allums and J. T. Weems, not having stood an approved examination on the Course of Study, were continued in the Class of the Fourth Year.

None were elected to Local Elders' Orders.

Class to Be Received—The Bishop announced that the class for full connection would be received at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Constitutional Question.

Bishop Kilgo presented the following Constitutional Question handed down from the last General Conference:

The General Conference requested the several Annual Conferences to vote on the question, "Shall the Twenty-Third Article of Religion in the Disciplines of all our Churches in foreign lands read:

"XXIII. Of the Duty of Christians to the Civil Authority.

"It is the duty of all Christians, and especially of all Christian ministers, to observe and obey the laws and commands of the governing or supreme authority of the country of which they are citizens or subjects, or in which they reside, and to use all laudable means to encourage and enjoin obedience to the powers that be'?"

The question of the change in the XXIII. Article of Religion in the Disciplines of all our Churches in foreign lands was submitted to the Mississippi Annual Conference at its session in Meridian, State of Mississippi, on 28th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1919.

115 members of the Conference were present and voted.

115 members voted in favor of this change.

No members voted in opposition.

JNO. C. KILGO, President;

A. F. WATKINS, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Evangelism.

The Committee on Evangelism presented a report which, after discussion, and upon a point of order raised by Robert Selby, was withdrawn, it being the sense of the Conference that the subject of evangelism was covered by the action taken at a previous Session by the adoption of the resolutions presented by the Presiding Elders.

Bishop Kilgo Speaks—On motion of B. F. Jones, Bishop Kilgo was requested to address the Conference on the attitude of the Bishops to the Standard Plan of Evangelism.

Resolution—Thanking Bishop Kilgo.

The following Resolution was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLVED: That we thank Bishop Kilgo for the explanation of the relation of the Bishops to the so-called Standard Plan for a revival, and that we assure the Bishop of our love and appreciation.

I. W. COOPER,

J. A. MOORE.

Whitworth College Represented—I. W. Cooper announced that, with the consent of the Chair, students of Whitworth College would represent that institution before the Conference, and requested C. W. Crisler to present the young ladies. Misses Cooper, Fondren, Cox and Kittrell were introduced and sang two numbers in quartette. Miss Virginia Cooper spoke of needed equipment at the college and asked the Conference for an offering. Subscriptions were made amounting to $1,015.00.

Question Ten—"Who are transferred to other Conferences?" was called, and the answer was: J. L. Decell and B. L. Sutherland to the Pacific Conference; A. B. Barry to the Northwest Conference; H. E. Carter and H. P. Lewis to the North Mississippi Conference; R. H. Kleiser to the Kentucky Conference; E. C. Gunn to the Louisiana Conference; W. H. LaPrade to the North Georgia Conference, and W. B. Hogg to the Little Rock Conference.

Introduced—Reverends J. L. Sutton of the Louisiana Conference; W. G. Henry, of the North Alabama Conference; H.

T. Carley, of the Louisiana Conference and Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, and H. A. Boaz, General Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, were introduced to the Conference.

Rev. H. A. Boaz—Rev. H. A. Boaz addressed the Conference relative to the work of the Board of Church Extension.

Report No. One Board of Finance.

Report No. One of the Board of Finance was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Commission on Finance submits the following as its report Number One.

The Conference having failed to fix the bond of the Conference Treasurer, Mr. W. D. Davis, as required by paragraph 449 of the Discipline of 1918, we fixed the bond at $5,000.00, which bond was executed by Mr. Davis.

In view of the fact that the financial plan ordered by our last General Conference is now operating well, and there will probably come into the hands of the treasurer increasing amounts of money as we advance in the work, we recommend that the bond be fixed at $20,000.00 for 1920.

There has been referred to us, a communication which shows a deficit of $214.00 on the Asbury Memorial Fund, due from the Mississippi Conference. We recommend that an amount of $31.00 be apportioned to each of the seven districts of the Conference to cover this deficit, and that the Presiding Elders be requested to collect these amounts and forward to the treasurers, Smith and Lamar as early as practicable.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. BURTON, Chairman,
T. J. O'NEIL, Secretary.

Question Seven—"Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers?" was called, and Stennis Wood Johnson, duly recommended by the Hattiesburg District Conference, was received from the Baptist Church, in Elders' Orders. He goes to the Class of the First Year for purposes of examination.

Question Four—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was called, and W. D. Barrett, V. G. Clifford, C. Y. Higginbotham, H. E. Raley, L. M. Sharp, J. A. Smith and J. M. Smith, were called to the Bar of the Conference and charged by the Bishop and, having answered the disciplinary questions were, by vote of the Conference, admitted into full connection.

Report of Board of Christian Literature.

The report of the Board of Christian Literature was read and adopted, as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We, Your Board of Christian Literature, beg to submit the following report:

It is gratifying to note that there is an increase in the circulation of our Christian literature, especially of General and Conference organs. We are pleased to report that all our Church publications still maintain their high standards of excellency both in subject matter and in mechanical production in spite of many difficulties. In order to sustain this standard it is necessary that our people rally more earnestly to their support.

The Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate has requested that this Conference undertake to secure 1100 new subscribers by March 1st. We recommend that this allotment be accepted and apportioned to the Districts as follows: Brookhaven, 160; Jackson, 160; Meridian 160; Hattiesburg, Newton, Port Gibson, and Sea shore, each 155; and that the District Stewards apportion these to the charges.

We rejoice in the increased circulation of the Nashville Christian Advocate and deprecate the notion among some of our people that this excellent paper is only for the preachers and official members. This paper has helpful message for the humblest layman and we urge that the pastors repeatedly call attention to this fact.

We would call attention to the Quarterly Review and the periodicals that come from our Sunday School Department. Many of our smaller Sunday Schools are not familiar with the weekly periodicals that should come to every school. It is with regret that we note that some of our people persist in the use of so-called "Union Literature," the publishers of which are responsible to no body of believers for the doctrines they inculcate. We urge that our own literature be circulated and read in order that our Methodist children may be properly taught and become loyal to the church.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. CHISHOLM,
O. S. LEWIS,
S. F. HARKEY.

Editor New Orleans Advocate—Rev. H. T. Carley, Editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate, addressed the Conference.

Substitutions on Boards—The name of S. F. Harkey was substituted for that of H. P. Lewis, and the name of H. G. Hawkins for that of W. H. LaPrade, on the Epworth League Board; and the name of J. L. Sells for that of B. L. Sutherland on the Board of Education.

The Chair—The Bishop requested J. T. Leggett to take the Chair.

Report No. One Sunday School Board.

Report No. One of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted, as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Sunday School Board begs to submit this, their report Number One.

The work of the Field Secretary, Rev. Jno C. Chambers, has been satisfactory, and successful during the year 1919, and having been elected to this important work for the year 1920, we respectfully request his re-appointment as Sunday School Field Secretary for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

H. F. TOLLE, Chairman,
B. F. LEWIS, Secretary.

Report of the Hospital Committee.

The report of the Hospital Committee was submitted and adopted.

On motion of G. H. Thompson the report was reconsidered.

The report was discussed and, on motion, it was recommitted.

Chair—The Bishop resumed the Chair.

Name Referred—The name of G. S. Harmon was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Supernumerary Relation.

Report of Board of Temperance and Social Service.

The report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service was read, an amendment was offered and the report was pending as unfinished business at the time of adjournment.

Memorial Session—A motion was adopted that when the Conference adjourn it adjourn to meet on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Memorial Session.

Adjourned—Bishop Kilgo made a fervent exhortation and called for penitents. "When I Can Read My Title Clear" was sung, and many came forward for prayer. The service closed with general handshaking and rejoicing under the manifest inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

The Conference adjourned with prayer and the benediction by Bishop Kilgo.

FIFTH DAY.

Meridian, Mississippi, November 30, 1919.

Memorial Session—The Conference met in Memorial Session at 3 o'clock p. m., M. B. Sharbrough, presiding.

Hymn Number 583 was sung, and Ira B. Robertson led the Conference in prayer. M. B. Sharbrough read the Scripture lesson from the Fifth Chapter of First Thessalonians.

Miss Mary Sue Houston sang "Will the Circle Be Unbroken?"

Question Eleven—"What preachers have died during the year?" was called, and the answer was M. F. Adams, H. P. Lewis and E. H. Mounger.

The Memoir of M. F. Adams was read by H. B. Watkins:

REV. MOUNGER FAVRE ADAMS.

Without entering my home death could not have come closer to me than in the utterly unexpected passing of Rev. Mounger Favre Adams, which occurred in the Wesley Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, Friday afternoon, January 10th, 1919. He had been to me much like a younger brother and his going was a great personal grief.

"Favre" was born August 20th, 1891, the youngest child, and the only living son of Rev. T. W. Adams and his wife, Mrs. Julia Thompson Adams. This boy came to them during their sojourn at Pearlinton, Miss. He was named for Dr. E. H. Mounger and for a family of devoted Methodist friends at Pearlinton, and was baptised in infancy by Dr. Mounger.

He was a worthy representative of that splendid army of men and women, which the Methodist parsonage has given to the world in all its walks of life. When he was converted no one can remember, for as early as nine years Favre, in the absence of his father, was conducting the family worship and his call to the ministry, clear and unmistakable, was one of the earliest facts of his consciousness.

With steadfast purpose he set about preparation for his life work, receiving an A. B. degree from Millsaps College and the A. B. and A. M. from Trinity. He had also spent several months in graduate work at the University of Chicago, and at Vanderbilt, and at the time of his death was doing Biblical work in Emory University.

Brother Adams was licensed to preach in June 1910, while yet a college student, and in December 1913 he was admitted on trial into the Mississippi Conference and was ordained a local deacon by Bishop Candler. During the previous summer and fall he had served the Harriston Charge as a supply, making his home at Lorman among many of my relatives, where his memory will long be held in sacred delight. During 1914, he was pastor at Fayette in Jefferson County and his pastorate there forms one of the brightest pages in the history of the charge, his removal to Flora at the end of the year being a matter of sincere regret to the people of that community. He served Flora three years immediately preceding our last Annual Conference, when he was ordained Elder by Bishop Kilgo and was appointed, at his own request, as student at Emory University. His work at Flora was in every way successful and his ministry there will always form a happy memory. The presence at his funeral of two of the elect ladies of the charge who made the long journey to Lumberton to bear a tribute from the people of his former pastorate, was one of the most comforting features of that sad day.

On June 4th, 1915, Favre was married to Miss Era Jenkins, the daughter of Brother and Sister J. M. Jenkins, at their home in Lumberton, and in this noble consecrated young woman he found a devoted partner in the sanctified ambition of his life. Some six weeks before his death there came to them a splendid baby boy to bear the name of Mounger Favre, Jr., and, we trust, to wear the mantel so early dropped by his earnest and lamented father.

Brother Adams leaves three devoted sisters to share the grief of their bereaved father and mother, and the sorrow of the crushed wife and bereft baby. They are Mrs. Lera Toler, of Brookhaven; Mrs. W. R. Butler of Gloster, and Mrs. P. M. Buie of Driver, Arkansas. In the death of this brother the heart of the family has been taken away and their fondest hopes seem blighted, and yet who doubts that brighter hopes and ambitions undreamed shall be realized yet in him by and by.

We buried him at Lumberton, Sunday afternoon, January 12 the service being conducted in the church in which he had preached to the delight of our people two Sundays previous. At his funeral affectionate tribute was paid him by a number of his brethren.

Favre Adams had in himself the essential elements, humanly speaking, of a successful minister, and his friends looked forward justly to a career for him of great usefulness in the service of Christ. With great native ability he brought to his task an equipment worthy of his calling while his charming personality brought sunshine to home and pulpit alike, and for a sad world he had a message of gladness irresistible. With splendid energy he gave himself to the details of his work with a thoroughness that guaranteed a good report.

None who knew him well could doubt where lay the anchorage of his soul, held firmly by sincere devoted consecration to the cause of the Kingdom of God.

Were there no God there would come to our hearts with his going a sense of defeat, but he who fulfills well the plans of God for him, whether in a few or many years, has succeeded beyond human estimate. His earthly probation had gone far enough to show him a devoted son, a loving brother, a whole-hearted husband, a tender father, a loyal Christian, and a workman who needed not to be ashamed. Is there any reason then why his promotion should cause surprise?

Were there no immortality in his going away so soon, as we thought of all these years of preparation and culture, there would come to us a feeling of waste, but true culture is of the soul and the soul redeemed with all of its consecrated power and passion shall never die.

If there were no Heaven, we should feel in his passing a sense of loss and separation like despair, but to the children of the King there is no eternal separation and we know that in the Father's house we shall meet again those "Whom we have loved long since and lost a while."

We do not look backward as we think of them, we do not say "Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight." The good we have lost are ahead of us and we shall see their faces and hear their glad voices again if we are good.

Upon the stone that marks his grave write for him the words of his Lord, with which he comforted the astonished grief of his parents. "How is it that ye sought me sorrowing? Wist ye not that I should be in my Father's house?" For there in the Father's house on High engaged in the tasks of eternity we shall find him.

H. B. WATKINS.

The Lewis brothers quartette sang "Shall We Meet Beyond the River."

A. F. Watkins read the Memoir of H. P. Lewis:

HENRY POPE LEWIS.

The death of the Rev. Henry P. Lewis removed from the walks of earthly life the oldest and most honored member of the Mississippi Annual Conference and took from its rolls of superannuates the name of the most beloved of the brotherhood of itinerant Methodist preachers in the state. It is given to but few of our preachers to serve the Church more than sixty years, and to fewer still to serve so long with so high a record of usefulness and popularity.

His life was not marked by the flash and sparkle and tumult of a mountain stream, leaping from crag to crag with thunderous roar on its downward journey to the sea; but was rather like the full, wide current of a river flowing through green meadow lands, making rich the pasturage, slaking with its cool waters the thirst of man and beast, and blessing with its generous bounty the lands through which it flowed.

He was a native of Mississippi and knew, as only one born among them can know, our people, and he loved them, and by them was loved. His was that good English blood that poured its richness and its strength into our early American life, and it was his honest pride that he could trace his lineage back to a sturdy young Welchman who fought with Marion and Green against the British in the Revolutionary War. The son of this hero of the Revolution, and the father of our brother, was Quinne Lewis, a native of North Carolina, who, at the age of twenty-two, married Martha Spoir and about 1820 moved to Mississippi and settled near Pearl River in Marion County. There are still living a few who cherish the memory of "Uncle Quinny" and "Aunt Pattie" and bear witness to the beauty of their Christian lives, and knew their sturdy sons, two of whom became honored ministers of Christ and members of the Mississippi Annual Conference. The eighth of the eleven children was Henry, who was born in the old home in Marion County, April 1st, 1836. He joined the Church when he was ten years old and in 1855, when nineteen years of age, was soundly and happily converted. He used to say of his experience: "I got a full start in my early Christian life and I have never willfully departed from my God."

As an itinerant preacher Brother Lewis' strength was found, not in the possession of any one conspicuous gift; but in a combination of gifts that made possible a well-rounded and symmetrical character and a type of unusual efficiency. He was always safe, always available, always useful, always popular. Entering the ministry at a time when in our Conference there was scarcely any other character of appointment than the large and important circuits among the rural population, he found in these the field of his happiness and usefulness.

Brother Lewis was fortunate in the fact that three of the most powerful formative influences that operate in the development of character wrought together in his life. From his conspicuously devout parents he inherited a sound and robust body, a voice of singular sweetness and power, the inestimable gift of common sense, and an amiable and obedient spirit. The influences of his Godly home and the circumstances that surrounded his youth confirmed those natural gifts; and his experience of religion in the years of his childhood made possible the steady and orderly development of the traits inherited by the child and the virtues inculcated in the youth. No wonder, then, that he became a strong, earnest and scriptural preacher; a gentle, sympathetic, and helpful pastor; a wise and affectionate counsellor; and a faithful and successful itinerant minister. He seemed happy and contented in his work, seemed to know no jealousy of his more conspicuous brethren, seemed never tempted to harsh or unbrotherly criticism, and throughout his life the kindness of his heart was shown in his frequent expressions of appreciation of the people whom he served. Hear him say again and again: "I have four preaching places among as good people as I ever served," or, "We soon found a warm place in the hearts of the good people." or, "We found good people everywhere," or, "Better people I have never known."

He was licensed to preach in July 1856, and received on trial in the Mississippi Conference in November 1857, at a session of the Annual Conference held in Brandon and presided over by Bishop Early. His gentle and susceptible spirit was strongly impressed by his contact with his brethren, and he mentions with reverence the names of the strong men then prominent in the Conference. His appointment was Black Creek Circuit, comprising thirteen preaching places and covering all of Harrison County and parts of Perry and Marion. He used to say, with a smile, that his appointments on the circuit began with New Hope and ended with Good Hope. For ten years he traveled circuits, principally in the southeastern section of the Conference, his charges being Columbia, Franklinton, Cayuga (colored charge,) Warren Mission (colored,) Tylertown, and Mt. Carmel. In 1867 he was made presiding Elder of the Paulding District which he served two years, and after this, as Preacher in Charge, he served Franklinton, China Grove, Holmesville, Magnolia, and Amite Circuits.

In 1883 we find him on Providence Circuit where he labored three years, during which pastorate he was wounded and narrowly escaped death in a cyclone which destroyed the Church in which the services were being held. Then came the pastorates at Lauderdale, Benton, Caseyville, Summit, Lake, Carthage, Yazoo, Fannin and Gallman Circuits. At Gallman came the greatest sorrow of his life in the death of his noble wife whose wise and loving ministry had been his joy for more than forty years. In 1905 he served the Vicksburg Circuit, shadowed by his sorrow in the death of his wife, but sustained by his unwavering faith. To him the same pastoral charge the next year was given, and then came the last stage of the itinerant journey—Liberty Circuit, where three years were spent, and where the pleasure of the Lord prospered in the hands of the veteran preacher. The last day of the itinerant life had come. It was known that the farewell sermon would be delivered and a great congregation gathered to hear the message of the beloved pastor. After the sermon the doors of the church were opened and eight persons joined the Church.

In 1909 he was granted the superannuate relation and moved to Jackson where he spent the remaining years of his life. Everywhere his work was marked by revivals among the Churches and everywhere he so walked among his brethren that when his name was called at the Annual Conference sessions the answer was always given "There is nothing against him."

Brother Lewis was twice married. In his youth he met and loved and wedded Rebecca Ann Tillery, of Wilkinson County, Miss. She was the pride of his young manhood, the sharer of the fortunes of his long itinerant life, and the wise and devoted mother of his children. After the death of his wife, which occurred in August 1904, he was married to Mrs. Louisiana Langston, a native of Mississippi, but for some years a resident of Arizona and Texas where her first husband was a member of the Los Angeles and North Texas Conferences. They were married in 1907 and for twelve years this noble and devoted woman was the stay and comfort of his old age and the sympathetic and helpful mother of his children.

The home life of Brother Lewis was especially happy. The good mother was the center around which the congenial circle moved but mother and children alike looked with affectionate pride to the father whose influence bound the happy group together. There were born in the home eleven children, seven boys, of whom the oldest, William Bryant, died in his childhood, and four daughters, one of whom, Ada, died in infancy. Of the surviving sons, the oldest, Charles, is a railroad yardman and lives in Meridian, Miss. The others, Barney W., John Tillery, Henry P., James M., and Osmond Summers, are Methodist Preachers and all but John Tillery of the North Mississippi Conference are members of the Annual Conference in which their honored father spent his life. The daughters are Miss Elizabeth, Miss Pattie and Miss Lela. Miss Elizabeth, the eldest, was happily married first to Rev. Jas. E. Jagers, a local preacher who died in 1889, and later to Mr. W. H. Griffin, of McComb City, Miss., and the youngest, Miss Lela, is the wife of the Rev. W. A. Terry, of the Mississippi Annual Conference. Four of the sons and the preacher son-in-law are honored and loyal alumni of Millsaps College, and the four sons who are members of the Mississippi Conference are known throughout the State as the Lewis Brothers Quartette. It is pleasant to look upon these young men as examples of the promised blessing of God upon the children and grandchildren of the righteous man.

During the years of Brother Lewis' residence in Jackson he became known and loved by the citizens of the community, and those accustomed to worship in the Galloway Memorial Church will long remember the courtly old man who worshipped with them and whose rich and sonorous voice in song and prayer so often touched their hearts.

He attended the session of the Annual Conference in December last; but with the opening months of the new year came the evidence of increasing weakness and the signs of approaching dissolution. He became too weak to attend Church and spent most of his time sitting on his front porch ready to greet his passing friends and to talk of the great transition that was approaching, and to declare his confident trust in the Lord who had redeemed him and to whose service his life had been given. A day came when a fall from a chair so injured him that he was confined to his bed, and on Saturday morning, July 26th, at 8:20 o'clock he quietly passed away. The funeral services were held in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends in the great auditorium of the Galloway Memorial Church, after which his body was conveyed by train to McComb City, to rest beside the wife of his youth, the six sons acting as pall bearers from the train to the grave. The Rev. W. M. Sullivan, of Columbia, Miss., conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. Charles W. Crisler, the Rev. J. M. Morse, and the writer of these lines.

"Servant of God, well done!

Rest from thy loved employ;

The battle fought, the victory won,

Enter thy Master's joy."

On motion it was ordered that the Memoir of E. H. Mounger prepared by I. W. Cooper, and published in the New Orleans Christian Advocate, be published with the other Memoirs in the Conference Journal:

REV. EDWIN HARTFIELD MOUNGER, D.D.

In these days when "the world is too much with us" and we lay waste our powers, "getting and spending," it is well that we may, on occasions, turn our attention to the lives of a few rare spirits who have been in this world and yet not too much of it.
Of such was the life of Rev. Edwin Hartfield Mounger, D.D., one of the most useful and scholarly men Mississippi Methodism has produced.

Dr. Mounger was born, if not in "pioneer days," at least sufficiently near them to have tasted something of their lessons in hardihood and courageous living, for soon after his birth, in 1838, the family records show that his father, Judge Henry Mounger, and his mother, who had been Miss Celia Millsaps, daughter of Judge Uriah Millsaps, moved to that portion of Jasper County which is now the site of Vossburg, and there cleared virgin forest land for the establishment of a home.

Added to the advantage of thus being the foster child of vigorous nature, Dr. Mounger was rich in the heritage of wisdom, piety and scholarship received from his own parents. Of his father, Dr. Mounger wrote, "He was an excellent scholar and I had no other thought than that I must study and acquire an education." How full of meaning is that sentence! All his life, his mind was so filled with right ideals that he had no other thought than that he must live up to them, to the best of his ability.

He thought his mother was "a woman of rare good sense" and one who encouraged and aided him in every way. She provided for his youth a home atmosphere which was "wise, tender, elevated, beautiful and refined"—where religion was the chief concern and the fire on the family altar was kept burning morning and evening.

From such a home we are not surprised to find him make a successful entry into the next realm of his existence—the school world. In the common schools of his neighborhood and in several academies of the vicinity, he secured such good instruction and applied himself so well that when he entered Centenary College, in 1857, it was found that he was prepared to do Junior work. In this institution, he excelled all of his classmates in scholarship, but was not awarded an honor because he had been only two years in residence at the college, while an honor required an attendance and study of four years. But his training had brought him more lasting pleasure than any "honor" could give, for during these days of study he had acquired a taste for and a knowledge of good literature which was to be an abiding joy throughout his years. His literary inclinations were toward the classic. Besides his mother-tongue, he was proficient in French, Latin and Greek. To the close of his life he read his Bible in Greek. Indeed his scholarship was so thorough and so comprehensive as to make him easily superior, in this particular, to most men of this day.

After his graduation, a little more than a year was devoted to the study of law, and to teaching for a few months in the Deaf and Dumb Institute, at Baton Rouge. Then he answered the call to preach and, in November, 1860, was received into the Mississippi Conference. Four years previous to this time, he had been "clearly and joyously converted" during a meeting at Pleasant Hill.

During a period of about fifty years, he served the Conference with zeal and ability. At the end of this time, he superannuated. While in the Conference, he served some of the most important pastorates and was for many years a Presiding Elder. His Conference conferred upon him the distinction of making him delegate to the Ecumenical Conference.

Dr. Mounger was especially interested in the educational work of the church. He was a frequent visitor to all the Church schools of the State and was known throughout the Mississippi and Louisiana Conferences for his able commencement addresses. It was very fitting that his Alma Mater bestowed upon him the degree of D.D.

The same month that he entered the Conference, Dr. Mounger was married to Miss Mary Jane Jones, daughter of Rev. R. J. Jones, Sr., of the Mississippi Conference. For thirty-seven years she shared with him the joys and hardships of an itinerant minister's life. Among the special trials which they underwent together were the terrible days of yellow fever epidemic in 1867 at Yazoo City, and 1878, at Port Gibson. On both these occasions, they were found at their post of duty, holding high the banner of their King, as they ministered to the sick and dying.

Death claimed Mrs. Mounger in 1897. To her husband, she left five children. All of them now survive their father. They are Judge Henry Mounger, of Indianola; Mr. William Mounger, an enterprising merchant of Natchez; Mr. Edwin L. Mounger, a prominent lawyer of Greenwood; Mary Ethel Mounger, wife of the late Dr. J. J. Stevens, of Hattiesburg; and Dr. Harvey T. Mounger, a successful physician, of Hattiesburg.

As his life neared its close, the great Apostle Paul wrote, triumphantly, "I have fought the good fight." Just so, our friend, Dr. Mounger, a short while before his death, wrote to one of his companions that he felt a great sense of satisfaction in reviewing certain facts of his life—both spiritual and material. Of the practical side he said: "I have been able to give all my five children good advantages in education—sending them to the best colleges in Louisiana and Mississippi, and that without cost to anyone else. Help has been offered me on several occasions, but I did not accept it. I have always kept out of debt and it is to day a matter of rejoicing that I do not owe a single cent. This has been accomplished by economy and by never spending money until it was in my possession and my own. My heart is full of gratitude to God."

In 1899, Dr. Mounger was married to Mrs. Sallie Folkes, a daughter of George Markham, of Warren County. After seventeen beautiful years of companionship, she preceded him to the other world.

On October 8, 1919, in the eighty-first year of his age, his spirit, too, was called to join the "choir invisible of the immortal dead." Immortal? Yes. We may think of him as enjoying a two-fold immortality: the immortality of the spirit made perfect through continued service in another and brighter world; and that earthly immortality which comes through the silent force of influence.

"For when a man dies,
For years beyond our ken,
The light he leaves behind him, lives,
Within the hearts of men."

I. W. COOPER.

The following paid tribute to the departed brethren: M. B. Sharbrough, C. W. Crisler, J. M. Morse, M. L. White, P. D. Hardin, Ira B. Robertson, I. L. Peebles, J. R. Jones, W. B. Jones, W. W. Moore, J. E. Gray, C. F. Emery, R. Bradley, P. H. Howse. Many other brethren desired to speak but the lateness of the hour prevented.

On motion the Conference adjourned with the benediction pronounced by T. B. Holloman.

SIXTH DAY.

Meridian, Mississippi, December 1, 1919.

Opening—The Conference met at 8:45 a. m., Bishop Kilgo in the Chair.

Devotion—The hymn "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung. The Bishop read the One Hundred and Third Psalm as a Scripture lesson and D. C. Hull led in prayer.

Minutes—The Minutes of the Fourth Day and of the Fifth Day, Memorial Session, were read and approved.

Report of Board of Temperance and Social Service.

The report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service was read, amended and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

We rejoice to see the actual advancement of the temperance sentiment and cause. We rejoice that God has raised up such organizations as the W. C. T. U. and the Anti-Saloon League of America to aid the Church in suppressing and eliminating the drink evil and to place a ban upon the narcotic drug habit.

Honor to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for showing the waste in human life caused by these evils, and for securing a hearing before the School Boards of the land to place in the public school curriculums books that teach the danger of alcohol and narcotics upon the human system, and also for sending Frances Willard to the International Sunday School Committee that there might be placed in this literature a lesson every quarter upon the subject of Temperance.

We also thank God that our Methodist Church has always sounded no uncertain note on this important subject. It has been a temperance society from the very beginning of its existence as a church. Her ministry have been sons of thunder against these evils. We note with pleasure and pride the effects of these combined efforts upon the people of the United States.

We are glad to announce to this Conference that the Eighteenth Amendment has been voted upon and passed by the people and by the Congress of the United States. The result shows that we never intend to return to the old days of the saloon and grog-shop. However, we give our ministers and people warning not to sleep on their oars. There will be some illicit manufacture and sale of whiskey and we must keep public sentiment arrayed against these things, and also keep the public informed as to the real danger of these habits to the human system, and that they are sins in the sight of God.

We call attention of the pastors to the law (Section 1082 of the Code) with reference to the sale of tobacco and cigarettes to minors, and urge our pastors to inform their people with reference to this law and to impress the parents of their duty to see that this law is made effective and thereby protect our children.

SOCIAL SERVICE—In this day of organizations we are aware there must be a social unit for every town and community. This unit may be a Red Cross, a Y. M. C. A., or perhaps some club or the school may form a unit and claim the leadership of the social service for the community. All of these organizations are to be appreciated, but as a church we cannot surrender our God given rights without hurt to our church and to the community in which we live. Much of the indifference to the Church and religion is due more to this cause than perhaps to any other.

The modern dance, some forms of which the printing press and the courts are condemning is permitted because of the leadership of some organization that cannot stem the tide of passions that sweep the human heart that is unregenerate.

The Sabbath desecration in the form of pleasure trips on the train or in automobiles should receive such attention from the Sunday School teachers, the Epworth Leagues, and the Woman's Missionary Society and from the pastor and membership of our Church that would make these things impossible. At the same time all departments of the Church should study and pray that God might guide the Church how to provide adequately for the social needs of both young and old in the communities where we may have churches.

We would respectfully suggest that this Conference memorialize and urgently request the legislature of the State of Mississippi, which convenes January 1920, to enact a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes in the state and make the penalty heavy enough to be effective.

We would respectfully urge our members to impress their children with greater respect for the Church in all its departments and in all of its work; to attend upon the ministry of the Word, and also to love and respect the social work.

We believe the Godly women of our Church cannot render better service to God and to man than in using their time and talent in training and developing our young people for service in the common activities in the community so that God may be glorified in the lives of the people of the community, and the Church honored in the esteem of the public mind.

Hoping that there may be a speedy reform by placing the Church in its rightful place in the social work and reform, and its rightful place in the heart of the community, we respectfully submit this report.

J. E. WILLIAMS, President.

WALDO W. MOORE, Secretary.

Journal Expenses—On motion it was ordered that the Finance Committee include in its budget an assessment of $900.00 for printing the Conference Minutes.

Question Fourteen—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained deacons?" was called. Bishop Kilgo announced that on Sunday Nov. 30, 1919, at the morning hour in the Central Methodist Church, Meridian, Mississippi, according to the Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, he ordained the following persons to the office of Deacon: William Darden Barrett, Cole Younger Higginbotham, Victor Granberry Clifford, Henry Edward Raley, Lonnie Marvin Sharp, James Madison Smith.

And the following to the office of Local Deacon: Warren Nathaniel Ware, Chester Overton Boyles.

Question Sixteen—"What traveling preachers and what local preachers have been ordained Elders?" was called. Bishop Kilgo announced that on Sunday, November 30, 1919, after a sermon by W. G. Henry, at the evening hour in the Central Methodist Church, Meridian, Mississippi, assisted by four Elders, and according to the Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, he ordained the following persons to the office of Elder: Andrew Joseph Beasley, John Buford Cain, Hugh Craig Castles, John Henderson Jolly, Claud Park Jones, Alvin Atticus Sims, David Webster Ulmer, Oro Creal Seevers and Swepson Fleetwood Harkey.

At the same time and place Stennis Wood Johnson assumed the ordination vows of an Elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

None was ordained Local Elder.

Question Six—"Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" was called, and the Chair announced the name of E. D. Simpson from the North Mississippi Conference, and H. G. Hawkins from the Memphis Conference.

Question Thirteen—"Who is elected Conference Lay Leader?" was called, and G. L. Harrell was elected.

Question Thirty-five—"Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?" was called, and Brookhaven was selected by unanimous vote.

Cabinet Meeting—The Bishop called the Presiding Elders to meet in the Pastor's Study and requested C. W. Crisler to take the Chair.

The Report of Committee on War Work.

The report of Committee on War Work was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

Your Committee on War Work to whom was referred communications from the War Work Commission submits the following report:

The Mississippi Conference hereby records its great appreciation of the heroic and self-sacrificing spirit of the Ministers of our Church in responding to the call of their Church and country for service as Chaplains during the World War. Approximately 450 of our preachers offered themselves for this great service. Of these 350 were approved; 19 withdrew or declined; 15 failed at the Chaplains' Training School; 58 were at the training school at the time of signing the Armistice and 114 were actually commissioned during the period of the War.

Our Church furnished a few more than its full quota, while 100 approved candidates, besides 58 at Training School, were ready for service, showing that our Ministry was in the highest degree loyal and patriotic. And

Whereas, It is a matter of gratification to us as a Church that without exception our men as Chaplains, Soldier Pastors and Y. M. C. A. workers made record second to none engaged in this great service.

BE IT RESOLVED, First, That we heartily approve the forward step proposed by the War Department in the Department of Education and Recreation for training the men of the Army in education and morals, and we rejoice that in this program they are proposing a vital relationship for Chaplains in distinctively religious education.

Second, That we would urge our Senators and Congressmen to support the bill introduced by Senator Capper, which bill was prepared by the Committee on Army and Navy Chaplains of the Federal Council of Churches of America, embodying the real needs of the Chaplains' Service in the United States Army, known as S No. 3351, and in the House by Congressman Hull, H. R. No. 10,477.

The main points of the bill aforesaid are:

First, a Chaplains Corps; Second, One Chaplain for each 1200 commissioned officers and enlisted men; Third, Chaplains to have the rank, pay and allowance as follows: 5% Colonel. 10% Lieutenant Colonel. 15% Major. 45% Captain. 25% First Lieutenant; Fourth, the age limit of men eligible for Chaplaincy to be 35 years, with two years provisional service, except that any clergyman, who served during the World War in the Army of the United States, shall be eligible on his army record.

We believe such legislation to be proper recognition of the Chaplains' place in the United States Army and that only through such legislation can the Chaplains efficiently carry on their great Spiritual Ministry.

Third, That we request the Secretary of this Conference to advise our Senators and Representatives of this resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

C. F. EMERY,
T. B. HOLLOMAN,
J. L. GREENWAY,

Committee.

Two have been placed on the effective list and one married.

The General Board reports to us that they would distribute this year $22,846.62, from the Superannuate and Endowment Fund, an increase of $7,509.12 over last year. Our pro-rata share of said amount had been sent direct to our claimants as will be seen from the report of our Treasurer. This Board will not deduct this from what we have apportioned to our claimants, but they will receive payments in full with these small sums additional.

Your Board this Conference year has raised the appropriations for the year 1920, ten percent, without raising the assessment on the Conference.

We urge our Brethren to get assessments as early as possible that we may be able to pay quarterly.

Your Board would call attention to the fact that the one percent of all money raised for the support of the ministry will be added to our assessments as the Discipline requires.

The Auditing Committee reports as follows: Received from all sources $18,246.11, and that the amount paid the claimants this year was $12,662.00, leaving balance on hand $5,584.11.

The Treasurer's report shows that $17,006.87, was raised on assessments.

Out of the balance on hand we have some outstanding obligations to meet such as the amount due the General Board, printing minutes, and a very small expense account and whatever balance we have when the obligations are paid will be paid early in the year to our claimants on next year's apportionments.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. MORSE, President

W. M. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

The Report of the American Bible Society Board.

The report of the American Bible Society Board was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

The work of the American Bible Society commends itself to every thoughtful Christian and to Christian workers and mission fields it is indispensable.

The nations of the earth are turning to God's word for guidance and the people for comfort as never before, and it is finding its place in Christian homes among believers everywhere.

Over one hundred and twenty million copies of the "Book of Life" have been published in many languages and distributed broadcast in one hundred years.

The Society has furnished New Testaments to millions of our boys and men in the Army and Navy during the terrible war and a supply is kept at all the ports of our nation. The support of the church is asked and pledged to this great cause in the future.

Our Conference paid the assessment of $1,000.00 for 1919, and the Board recommends the same assessment for 1920, distributed as follows:

Brookhaven District.....	$ 150.00	Meridian District.....	150.00
Hattiesburg District.....	150.00	Newton District.....	150.00
Jackson District.....	150.00	Port Gibson District.....	125.00
Seashore District.....	125.00

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. GRIFFIN, For Committee.

The Report of the Hospital Committee.

The report of the Hospital Committee was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

We, the members of the Hospital Committee beg leave to submit the following report:

We have been very much gratified in noting the very splendid progress that is being made in the construction of a great Methodist hospital in Memphis; and we rejoice in the fact that it has been our privilege to materially assist in the construction of this institution of our Church, and we assure them that they shall have our prayers and best wishes for its continued success; and we recommend the reelection of the Memphis Hospital Commission composed of the following:

J. T. Leggett,	L. N. Dantzler,	J. R. Jones,
W. M. Lampton,	P. H. Enochs,	Mrs. C. R. McQueen.

But the fact that the Memphis Hospital is located where it will be impractical for most all cases within the bounds of our Conference to receive a real and direct benefit from the institution; the Mississippi Conference has seen fit to propose a commodious hospital within the bounds of our own Conference.

Therefore we recommend the reelection of the Mississippi Hospital Committee to be composed of the following:

I. W. Cooper,	L. L. Roberts,	C. W. Cochran,
W. H. Saunders,	P. D. Hardin,	P. H. Enochs,
S. E. Morton,	Jno. McLeod,	H. M. Ellis,
C. W. Crisler,	L. N. Dantzler,	James Hand,
H. B. Watkins,	W. M. Buie,	J. S. Otis,
J. M. Morse,	J. T. Leggett.

Respectfully submitted,

L. L. ROBERTS, Chairman.
W. W. GRAVES, Secretary.
H. F. TOLLE,
C. W. CRISLER.

The Report of the Auditing Committee.

The report of the Auditing Committee was submitted and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

We, your Auditing Committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully audited the reports from the various charges placed all checks in the hands of the Conference Treasurer and received his receipt for same.

Fraternally,

T. B. COTTRELL, For Committee.

The Report of the Board of Education.

The report of the Board of Education was read; pending its adoption the Conference was addressed by A. F. Watkins, President of Millsaps College; H. M. Ellis, representing the Seashore Divinity School; Robert Selby, Commissioner of Emory University. The report was adopted:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

Your Board of Education offers the following as its report:

We have had before us reports from Stonewall Anderson, Secretary of the General Board of Education, and from Dr. Bennett, of the department of the Ministerial Supply and Training and are pleased to report the work committed to their hands as being in a prosperous condition.

OUR SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

Emory University—The report of our University indicates that the institution is in a growing and flourishing condition. We recommend the appointment of Robert Selby as commissioner of the university.

Millsaps College—The report of President Watkins shows the attendance to be approximately the equal of that of last year when the S. A. T. C. was on. We are gratified to learn from the president's report and from the report of the commissioner of Millsaps college, the progress made in the building and equipment of a new dormitory affording accommodations for a larger attendance than ever before. We recommend the appointment of Dr. A. F. Watkins as president of the college, and Rev. M. M. Black as commissioner. We recommend the appropriation of $5,000.00 to the College.

Whitworth College—President Cooper reports that his dormitory capacity has been exhausted and that many girls have been turned away for lack of room. Plans are practically matured for large improvements on the college property. We recommend the appointment of Dr. Cooper as president of the college. We further recommend an appropriation of $5,000.00 to be used to equip the college in library, science and grounds to conform to the requirements for an "A" grade college and to provide for payment on a lot which is part of the campus.

Port Gibson Female College—We hereby express our appreciation of the gift by Rev. H. G. Hawkins to Port Gibson Female College of a lot adjoining the college property. We recommend for election as trustees of the college, the following: E. L. Alford, J. M. Morse, P. H. Enochs, L. B. Allen and D. V. Hurlong. We are gratified to know that the attendance this session is in advance over the attendance of last session. We recommend the appropriation of $500.00 for improvements.

Seashore Camp Ground School.—We are pleased to note the good attendance indicated by the report of the president of this school. We recommend the appropriation of $500.00 for the school. We further recommend the appointment of H. W. VanHook as president.

Mississippi Conference Training School.—We recommend that an appropriation of $350.00 be made to this school to meet the terms upon which the general board will appropriate a similar amount for improvement. We recommend the confirmation of the sale of 33 acres of land more or less belonging to the school in order to liquidate an indebtedness on the land and school furniture. We recommend the appointment of E. L. Alford to the principalship of the school. We recommend the election of the following as trustees: The presiding elder of the Newton district, the pastor in charge of Montrose circuit, Columbus S. Ray, W. A. Hays, A. M. Broadfoot, H. F. Tolle, P. L. Blackwell, Dr. W. H. Mars, C. F. Neill, W. A. Davenport, J. W. Abney, James Hand, J. T. Gamage, Dr. W. C. Lamb and G. J. Lightsey.

Divinity School.—The Seashore Divinity School continues to occupy a useful place in our educational work. We would remind the Conference of the session for next year beginning June 22nd and continuing for ten days. We recommend an assessment of $360.00 for the school. We recommend the election of H. B. Watkins, as director of the school.

Commissioners for Seashore Camp Ground Property.—We recommend the appointment of a commission of five to confer with similar commissions from the Alabama and Louisiana conferences to look into the proposition coming from the trustees of the Seashore Camp Ground, to transfer the Camp Ground property from the three district conferences, Mobile, Seashore, and New Orleans, to the Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana conferences. We recommend the following as commissioners: H. M. Ellis, C. W. Crisler, J. A. Moore, W. D. Davis and W. H. Watkins.

We respectfully ask that Dr. A. F. Watkins, President of Millsaps college be given the privilege of addressing the Conference and presenting the immediate need for funds to meet a balance that will be due on the building of the dormitory by the first of January next.

We call attention to the offer of Mr. W. M. Lampton to build and equip the proposed swimming pool at Whitworth college, and tender to Mr. Lampton the hearty appreciation and thanks of this Board and of the Conference.

We ask the Conference to endorse the action of the board in naming a committee of seven who shall immediately take up the matter of determining a definite and uniform policy for our Conference secondary schools; who shall also by consultation with the Board of education of the North Mississippi Conference agree upon the larger need and advanced policy of Millsaps college; and who shall, furthermore, properly take care of the interests of Whitworth college, making it an "A" grade college.

We ask that the following shall constitute a committee: D. C. Hull, Joe Cook, C. W. Crisler, Robert Selby, J. A. Moore, A. F. Watkins and I. W. Cooper.

We recommend the election of Robert Selby as Conference Secretary of Education.

We respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, to-wit: That the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby respectfully petitions the Legislature of the State of Mississippi at its approaching session to take steps to repeal the articles of the Constitution of the State known as the Mortmain articles, and that a committee of three be named by this Conference to acquaint the Legislature of this petition.

Dr. J. A. Bray, Secretary of Education of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, was before your board and we recommend that he be given a hearing by the Conference.

Your Board of Education, recalling the alarming proportion of physical unfitness found to exist among our young men who were called to the colors during the great war and noting with hearty approval the growing and widespread interest in plans now maturing for the prevention and cure of diseases especially among the young, respectfully recommends that this Conference request our state and national authorities to devise and make provision for a wise and adequate system of physical education and training.

We recommend that an expense fund of $100.00 be set apart to provide for such expenses as that of delegate to educational conferences.

We hereby endorse the application of the Seashore Camp Ground School, The Mississippi Conference Training School and the Port Gibson Female College to the General Board of Education for amounts corresponding to the annual conference appropriations to these institutions, respectively.

We submit for your adoption the recommendations carried by the report of R. H. Bennett, D.D., as follows, to-wit:

1. That our Lord's method of supplying our pulpits be followed—namely, prayer to the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into the harvest.

2. That every Sunday School be requested to properly observe Vocation Day.

3. That every pastor be urged, in accordance with the law of our Church, to preach at least one sermon a year in every pulpit on the claims of the Christian ministry, and that this be followed by personal work among the young men of his congregation.

4. That our preachers be requested to speak on the subject of the ministry to the pupils of the schools and colleges accessible to them.

5. That the authorities of our colleges and schools give cordial welcome and assistance to the life service campaign conducted this session among students by the Centenary commission of our Church.

6. That our examining committee keep the law of the Church and recommend only those for admission on trial who have a diploma of full graduation from a standard high school or academy or who have made equivalent advancement in their studies. In the absence of this diploma the committee must examine the candidate on the fourteen points necessary for admission into a standard college. This takes the place of the old form "the ordinary branches of an English education." The examination on theological studies is in addition.

7. That the Commission on Religious Education from your conference be elected, if this has not already been done.

We recommend the appointment of J. L. Carter, J. B. Stringer and J. B. Cain as students in the Candler school of Theology of Emory University.

Respectfully submitted,

I. W. COOPER, President.

J. A. MOORE, Secretary.

The Report of Special Law Committee.

The Special Committee on Law relating to the Deeds and Titles of Port Gibson Female College was submitted and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Your Committee having been appointed to examine certain deeds, conveying land upon which the building of the Port Gibson Female College is located, and especially a deed recently executed by the Trustees of said College to the Mississippi Annual Conference (which deed has not yet been delivered as to the franchise,) and to pass on the title to said property, beg leave to report that it is impossible for them with the limited information at their command to pass on the title to said property. Our information is that the present Board of Trustees stand ready to execute any deed necessary to perfect the title of the conference to said property, if deemed necessary, as does also Brother Henry Hawkins, who conveyed to the Conference part of said property. We recommend that this Conference authorize your committee to have an abstract of the title to said property made and that J. T. Drake, and A. B. Amis be added to the committee, who with your committee heretofore previously appointed shall investigate the title to said property, and make report of the result of such investigation to the annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

D. W. HEIDELBERG,
M. M. SATTERFIELD.

Rev. J. A. Bray, Secretary of Education of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, was introduced and addressed the Conference. At his solicitation a contribution of $170.75 was made for the educational work of his Church.

Chair—The Bishop resumed the Chair.

Mortmain Committee—The Chair named the following Committee on the Mortmain Section of the Constitution: A. F. Watkins, C. W. Crisler, J. M. Morse.

Questions Twenty to Thirty-three were called and answered by the Statistical Secretary (See Condensed Minutes).

The Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

This report does not come to you as from a council of physicians and surgeons, rising from consultation over a patient whose health is in anxious question. Yet the condition of our church is our subject, and you ask for information and analysis, that it may go to record. We are directing attention then, to the Body of Jesus Christ, and pastors and laymen, selected attendants and assistants to the Great Physician, earnestly venture, with the Spirit's help, to declare what is put on us as our duty to do. With our Lord, Head over all things to the Church, our subject, sick or well, demands supreme attention. Men are thoughtless, but men feel safer when the Church is sound and strong. With sickness felt or feared for the Church, hope dims and world and Church droop down together.

DISEASE.

Our Bishops have sent to us their findings concerning the state of the Church. The voice of one of them who has brought these findings to us is still vibrating upon our hearts. Confidence in the future is unshaken, but concern is in their hearts and speech for the present. Our chief pastors see afar. They note undiminishing glory for the Cross. They proclaim its power amidst the awful and hell begotten struggles of a war whose fires continue to more than smoulder. Apostolic their assurance that "where sin abounds grace yet more abounds". We greatly mark the strength of their faith—our sorrow would be as night without stars if this comfort did not overlay their anxiety. Disease is perceived and asserted. Reactions, doubts, disappointments are broken out upon us like eruptions on the skin from sickness within. While war's flames glared Unity was brought to eager discussion among the several communions of the Church of Jesus Christ. Churches seemed hastening to unite in vital essentials under the One High Captain and Commander of our salvation.

Already hopefulness is dissolving in disappointment and dismay. We instance the Church of Rome, with claims of a mother—inclusive surely of the mother's readiness to sacrifice for children—which only recently dismissed personal overtures of Protestant Churches with chill indifference—wishing the children only so well as to see the sort of light which may induce the "erring children to return to the mother. The lion of the tribe of Judah still flits a spectre before Israel's restless tents, with Israel waiting, forever waiting, for Him of whom their prophets wrote and spoke. No unity there.

The young men's visions do not focus; old men's dreams yet unfulfilled.

OUR COUNTRY.

When war broke down partitions everywhere, all peoples' eyes were open to seeing more than had been seen before. What they saw in America was the Spirit of God, speaking through our President and our people. Spiritual ideals held up, open hands extended our food and clothing to all who suffered, enemy or friends. Gracious prospects unfolded, and the world's eyes have now a way of looking for further good from us for them.

OUR DANGER.

What our Church may have to give to the eager peoples who lack is the burning question. One thing we know—We must not answer with stones, no matter their polish or fine mechanism—it is bread, the Bread which came down from Heaven which the Church must hand around to the hungry, sitting expectant in their desert places. We are in danger of attempting with mechanism, many wheeled—and with formula, to achieve results which only eternally rooted forces of Organism, of Life, may obtain. As Ministers, as Disciples now, we are to recognize the world's demands of us, and then to see as the Holy Spirit abiding in us shows us, how prepared we are to meet demands. This brings us to the study of our Conference, our great section of the Church. And we come to set forth the conditions of our Church as we hear from our pastors. Let us state soberly our difficulties.

The homes of our people suffer from neglect. Family worship has declined, and for the children, becoming too few to the family, religious nurture is relaxed. We sing Standing on the Promises—we are due to realize fuller meaning to that Heaven-sent promise, which is to us and our children.

Our public schools open but partially to spiritual instruction. The State fails in pride of clean administration in much of its official life. Are we heedless of the fact that Patriotism is the fruit of a righteously administered State? The community exposes very serious weakness. The Christian Sabbath bleeds from hurtful wounds. Attendance upon Public Worship has fallen off. Diversions have multiplied, too tempting to resist. Business does not rest with monopoly of six days of the week. These days are bloating with greediness, and buying and selling are not principled on the Golden Rule. Business has broken through upon the Holy Sabbath day, and community sentiment is not jealous enough of covenant keeping with the God of the Sabbath to resent and close the offending doors.

We advise you of particular interest involving our Coast line. Romanism has not helped us protect the Sabbath down there. The contrary is the case. Many families of ours and other States go there for the season, summer and winter. And the tide of license flows steadily back and throughout the State. Infection has for years been progressing—and may be aggravated now to a degree beyond what has been for years.

CARDINAL POINTS.

Brethren, the Home, the School, the State, the Community, are cardinal points by which the Church of Christ can measure His Presence and His Prospect. The Holy Spirit guiding, expanding these supreme factors, will take of the things of His and show them, that we may rejoice with joy exceeding. Grieving the Spirit, humiliation overwhelms the Church—the world ignores the walls Christ raised about our Zion, despising and despairing while it tramples us.

This report is trying to set forth conditions related to the Church. If only there is a moderate volume of truth in our review, is that not enough to call into action all powers in Heaven and on earth which were given unto our Lord, which He invested in and has left with his Church? This Conference stands for leadership under the Spirit's orders—under-shepherds of many sadly straying sheep.

We do not feel that pessimism correctly defines our statements here. Is not pessimism the superlative of conditions to which malaria is the positive term? With confidence we read what our Lord asserts for his Church—that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Yet are we not constrained to feel and fear that as our hands relax their hold, and our Israel dallies in her tents, these dreadful gates do threaten and in part prevail? No shadow darkens our faith for the future—That the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of God, the saving knowledge. But the present alone is ours in which to do the Master's business. We do not deal in futures. Today, if we will hear, is the Day of Salvation!

We are striving with righteous purpose, which may accept with thankfulness. The spirit of the Centenary movement is beginning to encourage us to ask great things of God, and to expect great things from God. The power and coming of Jesus Christ means more to us today than to those who "saw and heard." God grant to us that spirit of America's soldier sons and sailors, who only learned the way to advance, whose captains had not taught them to retreat.

There never can be such a thing as a world armistice. Neither Heaven or hell would have it. We will not think the battle won, nor lay our armor down. Christ came not to send Peace but a sword.

Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to thee 'till death.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. HUNTLEY, Secretary.

The Report of the Board of Church Extension.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Board of Church Extension submits the following report of its work this year. We have emphasized the payment of debts this year because our money was worth as much as ever on an old debt, hence we have tried to use the money and influence of the Board to stimulate some Churches to free themselves from bondage. By these conditional promises we have seen the Churches of Yazoo City, Crawford street, Vicksburg, Georgetown and Union, Miss., relieved from all indebtedness.

We were disappointed in the amount of money collected on the benevolences this year and as a result of the general shortage we have had paid into the Church Extension treasury $6,337.77; all of which is sent by the Conference Treasurer, W. D. Davis, to the General office at Louisville, Kentucky, one half of which is appropriated by us, but the business details of all of it being carried on by the General Office.

We are trying more and more to make the money that we handle help the pastor and building committee to raise more money from the people where the church is needed.

We have had before us this year eighteen applications asking for a total sum in donations of $5,820.00, and a loan of $2,000.00. We had for donation only $2,400.00 and for loans only $1,566.00; consequently we could not grant all that was asked for, but we have tried to take care of every church where they had actually done their part before coming to us for help. Those churches that were not aided this time will not be forgotten next year if they actually do their work before the next Conference and again ask for help. The Churches and parsonages aided this time by donations are as follows:

Crawford Street, Vicksburg.....	$ 1,000.00
Yazoo City.....	500.00
East End, Meridian.....	250.00
Georgetown	250.00
Union	100.00
Roxie	125.00
Mallalieu	100.00
Soule's Chapel.....	75.00
Gibson Memorial Parsonage.....	200.00

These donations call for a mortgage and refunding bond to be signed by the Trustees and recorded before the money is sent to them, but does not obligate the church to pay either principal or interest so long as the Church is kept in that community.

CONFERENCE LOAN FUND.

Our Conference loan fund is growing each year. It now amounts to $5,180.00. We have loans now placed on the following churches, the principal yet unpaid being as follows:

Bude	$ 400.00
Broad Street, Hattiesburg.....	172.50
Raleigh	400.00
Tillman	75.00
Meridian, Poplar Springs parsonage.....	400.00
DeKalb	68.18
Roxie	100.00
Eden	600.00
Kingston, Laurel.....	1,000.00
<hr/>
Total outstanding loans.....	$ 3,215.68

Loans granted but not yet placed, Camden.....	$ 400.00
Loans granted this time, Harpersville.....	800.00
Loans granted this time, Stevenson.....	750.00

We would again urge our pastors to see that our churches and parsonages are kept insured.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

L. E. ALFORD, Secretary.

Report No. Two of the Board of Missions.

Report No. Two of the Board of Missions was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We, Your Conference Board of Missions, beg leave to make the following report:

As far as figures can measure the sentiments of the Church there has been a most healthy growth in the Missionary interest in the last few years.

In 1917, we had the greatest financial increase in the history of the Church, aggregating from all sources $258,972.00 for all departments. The year 1918 surpassed this high record by a further increase of $193,465.00. Of this amount $97,826.00 was increase in contributions for Woman's Work, which is the greatest advance in any year since the organization of the Woman's Missionary Societies. Thus in the last two years the annual income has grown $452,437.00. This has shifted the balance from the debit to the credit side of the ledger.

Of the amount assessed our Conference for Home Work $8,258.59 has been collected and $159.24 expenses of the Board. This amount constitutes 76% of the total amount for the year.

Our Sunday School specials $855.34, Sunday School specials by Treasurer of the Board, and Sunday School specials direct to J. D. Hamilton $1,574.80.

The success of the Centenary rises so far above mere human power and skill as to forbid pride or boasting. It calls for humble gratitude, for "God hath done great things for us." Surprising as were the financial results they were by no means the greatest.

The spiritual results so evident are to all beyond all price.

It is evident to all that we are in the midst of a great crisis as a nation and the need of a church wide revival was never more imperative.

Therefore we urge our pastors and people to earnestly and heartily cooperate with our chief pastors, as outlined in their recent and masterly address issued to the whole church, and with our Missionary leaders in bringing about the much needed revival.

In conserving the results of the Centenary movement we would stress the vital importance of Intercession, Stewardship and Tithing and Life Service.

We note with pleasure the presence of Rev. J. J. Stowe, D.D., Secretary of Stewardship of the Centenary Commission, and we greatly appreciate his inspiring and helpful address.

We are greatly rejoiced at the phenomenal success of our elect women in their Woman's Missionary Society during the past year as indicated in their annual report, which is appended hereto.

We respectfully recommend the appointment of Rev. W. T. Griffin and Rev. H. G. Hawkins as Conference Evangelists and the reappointment of Rev. D. E. Kelly and Rev. J. V. Bennett as Conference Evangelists.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. L. Neill as Superintendent of the Department of Missionary Education of the General Sunday School Board.

We commend most heartily Rev. D. C. Hull and Rev. J. A. Smith for the faithful and efficient service rendered as Conference Missionary Secretaries, and we also desire to express our sincere appreciation of the self-sacrificing service rendered by Brother W. T. Denman as Conference Centenary Director.

We are glad to announce that we have secured the services of Brother W. D. Hawkins as Conference Missionary Secretary for the year 1920.

The appropriations for 1920 to the several Mission charges are as follows:

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

TO THE BRETHREN OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

"The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

Our Conference at this time is 17% in advance of this time last year, as shown by reports of Conference and Council Treasurers. A 15% increase in membership and funds was asked of all the Conferences at the last session of Council in Memphis. Although one of our districts, the Seashore, has for the past nine months been without a Secretary, reports from the other six show material advancement along all lines.

In the matter of contributions to Wesley Houses and for the Week of Prayer, decided increase over last year is evident in most of the auxiliaries, some increasing their donations by 50%.

The Conference is supplying funds for the scholarship of Miss Willie G. Hall, Walnut Grove, at Scarritt Bible and Training School. The Mississippi Club at Scarritt, composed of the young ladies from this Conference and the North Mississippi, is a power for good among the student body; and the Mississippi Conference stands first in Council for its representation at this institution.

Following is our financial report for the three quarters, as shown by the books of our Conference Treasurer:

Amount sent Council Treasurer for first quarter.....	$ 3,067.00
Amount sent Council Treasurer for second quarter.....	2,357.00
Amount sent Council Treasurer for third quarter.....	2,857.00
Total	$ 8,281.00

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. F. LEWIS, Conf. Pres.

MRS. H. L. McCLESKY,

Conf. Corresponding Secty.

Conference Missionary Secretary—W. D. Hawkins made a statement of the work assigned to him as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Report of the Committee on Conference Relations.

The report of the Committee on Conference Relations was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Committee on Conference Relations has carefully considered the cases referred to it, and we recommend:

W. B. Waldrop and G. S. Harmon for the Supernumerary relation; and for the Superannuate relation, the following: Geo. W. Huff, R. Bradley, J. W. Brown, Ira B. Robertson, W. W. Simmons, E. D. Phillips, C. M. Martin, R. F. Witt, J. T. Nicholson, W. W. Cammack, L. Carley, W. D. Dominick, J. M. Massey, C. T. Noble, B. H. Rawls, I. L. Peebles, G. R. Ellis, T. B. Holloman, T. W. Adams.

J. H. FOREMAN, Chairman,

H G. HAWKINS, Secretary.

Question Eighteen—"Who are supernumerary?" was called, and answered in the report of the Committee on Conference Relations.

Question Nineteen—"Who are superannuated?" was called, and answered in the report of the Committee on Conference Relations.

The Report of the Board of Lay Activities.

The report of the Board of Lay Activities was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:-

We, your Board of Lay Activities, beg to report as follows:

At the last session of the Conference we took as our objective the consummation of the Centenary Movement during the next four years. We hail with delight the results obtained thus far, and pledge ourselves anew and with renewed energy to the further carrying on of that plan.

We believe that there is a growing disposition to use the Laymen in the various phases of Church work. We are thoroughly of the opinion that there should be some sort of service in every Church every Sunday and we believe that some devoted Laymen may be found to render that service when it is not within the power of the pastor to do so. The small country places are those where this is most needed.

We urge upon the Presiding Elders and Pastors to call upon the Laymen to take a larger part in the activities of the Church work.

We recommend that the Charge Lay Leader be made the chairman of the minute men in as far as it is possible to do so. We urge that an every member canvass be made in every charge at the earliest possible date. This is the surest way to secure the finances and will assist mightily in arousing the interest of the members in other phases of the work. We particularly urge upon all the Laymen of every congregation to attend as far as possible both the morning and the evening services of the Sabbath and the midweek prayer meeting.

We recognize the fact as never before that the time has come when we must pay our Preachers a living salary. We appreciate the fact that a man is called of God to preach the Gospel and that he heeds the call without regard to remuneration for his services, his only thought being—"Where He leads me I will follow." We should not be unmindful of the fact, too, that we, as Laymen, are servants in the vineyard of our Lord and stewards of his property and we should see that our preachers are paid a salary upon which they can live more comfortably. Yea, more than that, that they may lay up some for that day when they will be told upon the floor of this Conference that the day of their effective ministry has passed, or that other day when the Great Head of the Church shall transfer them to the other side of the River. We urge a more adequate support of the Superannuated Ministry and of the widows and orphans of our deceased brethren.

We would respectfully recommend that our Lay Leaders and minute men be used by our pastors in presenting to the congregations of our Conference the claims of our Church literature and especially the importance of getting the Conference Organ into every home.

We recommend the election of G. L. Harrell as Conference Lay Leader.

Respectfully submitted,

G. L. HARRELL, Chairman.

J. M. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

Question Thirty-four—"Who is elected Conference Lay Leader?" was called, and George L. Harrell was elected.

Committee Discontinued—On motion Committee on Layman's Movement was discontinued.

The Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We, your committee beg leave to submit the following report:

When our Lord spoke the words "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy," He laid down a great principle for the betterment of humanity and for His glory.

It is essential that this commandment be observed if we hope to maintain our Christian civilization.

It is a deplorable fact that in many communities in the bounds of our Conference, there are those who spend the Sabbath day in pleasure seeking, and in carrying on their business. In order that a greater sentiment be created against such, we urge our pastors to emphasize the importance of the proper observance of this day in all their congregations, publicly and privately.

We heartily endorse, and will gladly cooperate with any movement, looking to the suppression of Sabbath desecration in our midst, and in our Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. ELLIS, Chairman,

J. T. ABNEY, Secretary.

The Report of the Committee on District Conference Records.

The report of the Committee on District Conference Records was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

The records of the following Districts were before the Committee for examination: Jackson, Hattiesburg, Port Gibson, Brookhaven and Seashore. We find them all neatly kept but would suggest that some have not sufficient marginal index and would recommend a more thorough indexing of the matters contained in the minutes; and a tabulation of the ballots had in the election of delegates to the Annual Conference. We noticed that the Record of the Hattiesburg District had a splendid wide margin on the left side of the page for the index and a margin on the right side of the page for any helpful notations which might occur, and we were so impressed with this plan that we recommend that it be adopted by Secretaries writing the minutes of the Conferences hereafter.

This report does not include records of the Newton District and the Meridian District, neither of these Districts having furnished its records to the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

M. R. JONES, For the Committee.

The Report of the Committee on Orphans' Home.

The report of the Committee on Orphans' Home was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We, your committee on Orphans Home, have heard with pleasure the reports of the Superintendent and Field Secretary. We have examined with great satisfaction the report of the Board of Trustees which we submit as part of this report. We endorse this report and urge that it be read to all our congregations as early as possible.

We heartily commend the reappointment of Rev. B. F. Lewis as Superintendent whose efficient management covers every detail of the needs of the institution.

We call attention to the great work being done by Mrs. S. F. Riley in investigating applications for children. We are glad to know that more and better homes are being opened to these children, sixty-six being adopted during the year. We are glad to know that such pains-taking care is being exercised that the children are being placed in the best homes.

We note that more than 50% of the charges are regular contributors to Orphanage, an increase over what has been. We urge all our pastors and Sunday School Superintendents to give enthusiastic support to this worthy cause and take monthly collections.

We submit for confirmation the name of Mrs. H. N. Austin, elected as representative of the Woman's Missionary Society, as a member of the Board of Directors.

There are two vacancies in the Board of Trustees. We recommend the reelection of Rev. W. M. Sullivan and M. S. Enochs.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. DENMAN, Chairman,
O. S. LEWIS, Secretary.

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

Dear Brethren:

I take pleasure in handing you the annual report of the work done in our Orphans' Home at Jackson, Mississippi, for the year 1919.

From every standpoint the year has been a very successful and profitable one. The health of the home has been almost perfect. Aside from the ordinary ailments of childhood, we have had only two or three cases of serious illness during the past twelve months, and no fatalities; and at the present writing, there isn't a case of illness in the home.

Our school curriculum has been raised this year to the standard of the graded schools of the city of Jackson, and we are using the same books and doing the same work here which is being done in the city schools; and from this time forward, our pupils completing our grammar school course can be admitted to the high school of the city of Jackson without conditions. We are, this year, giving our children instruction in instrumental music, as in the past, and have introduced some phases of industrial work, having at present two classes in sewing besides canning club and poultry organizations among our girls. We have three pupils in the high school this year, two of whom will graduate in the Spring. Three of our girls are in college—two at Whitworth and one at Grenada. The expenses of these girls are being met by friends.

Our Sunday School, Epworth League and other services have been regularly held and have been both pleasant and profitable. During the year, through the kindness of friends, we purchased a 'bus for the farm which has not only made it possible for our boys on the farm to come in to the Home to Sunday School, but from twenty-five to thirty of our boys and girls attend services in the city churches every Sunday morning. Several of our children have united with the church this year.

Our farm and truck patch have been very successfully cultivated and we are beginning to realize the fruits of our labors in these two departments of our work, and our boys are being taught to skilfully cultivate the soil and care for the live stock.

In financial matters we are glad to report that a larger number of our Sunday Schools and churches and individuals have been making regular monthly contributions to the support of our Home than ever before in its history. Not only has the number of contributors increased but the generosity of these friends is markedly manifest. In view of the exorbitant prices on clothing and provisions which still prevail, and of the fact that we are still denied free cars and rebates on freight, this has been most gratifying to your Board of Directors. As a result of this thoughtfulness on the part of our friends, we have been able to make some needed improvements on the property, and to meet our bills promptly.

As to the Home Finding Department, we have had more applications for children than we have ever had before, and more children have left our Home to go into foster homes than during any previous year of the history of the institution. We are gratified to be able to report to you that the requests for our children are coming to us from the first homes of the state; and the children committed to our care and who have left us are receiving every advantage, intellectual, moral and spiritual which could be asked for them. During the year sixty children have been admitted into our Home, sixty-six have gone into foster homes and at present 173 children under our care.

The term of office of the following Directors expires at this session of your Conference. We ask for these vacancies to be filled: W. M. Sullivan and M. S. Enochs. We also ask that you confirm the election of Mrs. H. N. Austin, representative of the Woman's Missionary Society, as a member of your Board.

Below is our financial report:

We request the reappointment of Rev. B. F. Lewis as superintendent of the Home.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. H. SHERARD, Chairman.

Time Extended—On motion the time was extended to complete the business of the Conference.

Report No. Two of the Sunday School Board.

Report No. Two of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Sunday School Board is much pleased with the Sunday School work of the year. Our Field Secretary, Rev. Jno. C. Chambers, has been indefatigable in his efforts to build up the work, and aided by our Elementary Secretary, Mrs. Sue Stewart Brame, many institutes and other gatherings of Sunday School workers have been held in various parts of the Conference. They have reached 140 Sunday Schools, 10 District institutes and held 520 individual conferences. Through these various channels, they have reached over 20,000 persons during the year. Eight new Home Departments have been organized, with 53 Cradle Rolls, 34 Wesley Bible Classes, 27 Teacher Training Classes, and 50 schools made Missionary Pledges. In the city of Jackson a standard Teacher Training School was held, lasting a week, in which 93 persons enrolled, and 23 made credits.

For the year just beginning, your Board has plans as follows:—

We are planning to open an office in the city of Jackson which we trust will be the headquarters of all the Sunday School workers of our Conference, and of other parts of the state as these may visit our capital city. We will have at all times stationery, and various Sunday School helps which will be an invaluable aid to us.

We have planned for a number of institutes and training schools during the year. Another training school will be held in the city of Jackson, and we hope to be able to hold at least two others during the year. We are trying to arrange for a conference standard training school for the next year, as a result of these efforts.

Our statistics are as follows:

Number Schools.....	451
Number officers and teachers.....	3,313
Number scholars.....	32,598

Our treasurer reports as follows:

Balance on hand at close of last Conference.....$	402.94
Received from Sunday School Day.....	1,199.65
From W. D. Davis Conference Treasurer.....	939.55
From Friends.....	499.45
Borrowed from bank.....	820.12

Total	3,861.71
Total Disbursements.....	3,105.65

Balance on hand.....$	756.06
------------------------	--------

We would like to call attention to the fact that the Jackson District led the Conference in the amount collected on Sunday School Day, the amount being $195.97, and Galloway Memorial led the Conference in the collection by an individual Church, with a collection of $95.00

We earnestly request all our pastors to observe Sunday School Day and remit promptly to our treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

H. F. TOLLE, Chairman,

B. F. LEWIS, Secretary.

Report No. Two of the Commission on Finance.

Report of the Commission on Finance was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

Your Commission on Finance reports as follows:

After carefully considering all amounts requested by the various Conference Boards, we recommend an assessment of the Conference Boards of $94,036.00 for all the benevolent claims. Of this amount, $43,180.00 is for general work, and $50,856.00 is for local work.

The assessments are to be distributed to the several Districts as follows:

	Gen. Work	Local Wk.
Brookhaven District.....	$ 6,699.00	$ 7,890.00
Hattiesburg District.....	5,738.00	6,758.00

General Conference Expenses.....	1.	431.80
	100.	$ 43,180.00

Having a sufficient amount in hand to pay the expense of the Conference Treasurer for 1920, we have made no assessment for that item.

We respectfully call attention of the several Conference Boards to Paragraph 449 of the Discipline of 1918, which requires that all the treasurers be secured by adequate bond.

We ask the Conference to approve the appointment of Mr. W. T. Denman as auditor of the Conference Treasurer's books, and ask that the Treasurer's report which we append as supplemental to our report, and read for information, be referred to Mr. Denman, and that he be requested to audit the report, and the treasurer's books, and to forward the report to the editor of the Conference journal as early as practicable, to be inserted in the Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. BURTON, Chairman,

T. J. O'NEIL, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. DAVIS,

Conference Treasurer.

I hereby certify that I have today examined the foregoing report and have found the figures to be correct as shown, and that all disbursements are properly supported by vouchers.

I have also found that there were practically no receipts by the Treasurer before February, 1919, and that, beginning with that month, remittances were made monthly by the Treasurer, as required by the discipline, as to both General and Conference work with the exception of the month of July, for which month, the collections being very light, remittances were made together with August collections, and as to General work, for a similar reason, the collections for the last half of March, were remitted together with April collections.

W. T. DENMAN, Auditor.

Report of the Epworth League Board.

The report of the Epworth League Board was read and adopted as follows:

TO THE BISHOP AND MEMBERS OF THE MISSISSIPPI ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

Dear Brethren:

We are glad to note a steady growth in the work of the Epworth League throughout the entire connection; every annual conference now being organized except three.

The work of our Conference is of a high order, and our young people are being brought in to active work in the Church through the League; pastors are realizing more and more the necessity for the Epworth League, in training their young people for service.

We wish to endorse the work being done by the Conference Epworth League, and rejoice that the last Conference at Laurel was the largest in attendance in its history, and that there were at this Conference 78 volunteers for the Lord's work anywhere He might want to use them; the next session will be held in Vicksburg in June and we urge our pastors to attend.

Glad to note the increase in the study of missions, which is reported as 100% increase.

The League has paid more to the Centenary in proportion to its members than any other organization of the Church.

We rejoice in the continued growth of the Epworth Era, there are now 27000 paid subscriptions.

We would call your attention to the League Calendar and urge its observance, especially Epworth Era Day the second Sunday in January and Anniversary Day, the second Sunday in May. The Sunrise prayer meeting the week before Easter should be observed by all the Leagues.

The Board recommended that an appropriation of $800.00 be made for the work during this year to used as follows:

Expense of District Secretaries.....	$ 175.00
Superintendents of Departments, etc.....	175.00
Program for Summer Conference.....	150.00
Officers attendance at Mid-winter Conference.....	150.00
Extension Work.....	150.00

Total	$ 800.00
-------------	-----------

We urge the pastors to organize Leagues on their Charges and ask the assistance of their respective district secretaries to assist them.

Yours fraternally,

W. D. HAWKINS, President,
W. A. TERRY, Secretary.

Resolutions of Thanks.

The following Resolutions of Thanks were read and adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas we rejoice with the good people of Meridian in the material and spiritual blessings that have come to them from our Heavenly Father since last we assembled together in Conference session in 1911, whereby they have been enabled to erect this splendid house of worship.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: First, That we thank the citizens of Meridian for their generous hospitality and especially the ladies of the Methodist congregations of the city for the most excellent lunches which they have provided for our enjoyment;

Second, That we thank the hosts of the Conference, Revs. H. B. Watkins, J. L. Sells, W. J. Ferguson, I. L. Peebles, H. R. McKee, and A. J. Davis for their unstinted efforts in providing for our entertainment;

Third, That we thank the pastors and congregations of the city for the use of their houses of worship;

Fourth, that we thank our secretaries, auditors and W. D. Davis, Conference Treasurer, for their arduous and faithful performance of duty;

Fifth, That we thank the representatives of the Commercial Appeal, Rev. E. H. Cunningham, of the Times Picayune, of the Meridian Star, and the Meridian Dispatch, for their faithfulness in reporting the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

C. F. EMERY,
P. D. HARDIN,
JNO. A. McLEOD,

LADIES' FROCKS AND BONNETS

You will find us showing at all times the very ultra models in women's wear. Direct from the style centers of America they come to us daily by express. We have models for all figures. Let us show you yours. We know style because we study style.

CORSETS FITTED

The most important item of a woman's wardrobe is a correctly fitted corset—important for health's sake, important for appearance sake. Our graduate corsetiere will gladly fit a corset to your figure. If you have never been fitted it will make all the difference in the world.

Corsets Fitted Cost No More

This is only part of our better service. Ladies, we mean what we say. We can dress you to the best advantage at a most reasonable price.
